CELEBRATION SPEAKER

BIRAJ KARMACHARYA, MPH, PH.D. '15, '17

2024 SPH Alumni of Impact Award Recipient

Biraj Karmacharya, a public health leader in Nepal, is the administrative director at Dhulikhel Hospital and associate professor in the Department of Public Health at Kathmandu University School of Medical Sciences.

He founded and has been leading the Department of Community Programs/Public Health at Dhulikhel Hospital since 2006, through which he is engaged in developing and setting up innovative community-based health and integrated health and development programs. He has also been instrumental in advancing public health training and research in Nepal, leading the pioneering programs MScPH (Epidemiology and Global Health) and lately the Ph.D. Program in Public Health at Kathmandu University School of Medical Sciences.

Karmacharya studied at the University of Washington School of Public Health as a Fulbright Science and Technology Awardee and received two degrees: a Ph.D. in Epidemiology in 2015 and an MPH in Global Health (Leadership, Policy and Management track) in 2017. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship in cardiovascular epidemiology from the UW.

Karmacharya is an affiliate associate professor in the School's Department of Global Health and was the founding co-director of Nepal Studies Initiative at the Jackson School of International Studies at the UW.

In addition to his UW degrees, he obtained an MBBS (2003) from Kathmandu University and an MS (Tropical Medicine, 2006) from Mahidol University, Thailand.

AWARDS

OUTSTANDING STUDENT AWARDS

Each department and interdisciplinary program selects outstanding students at the master's and doctoral levels. The Department of Environmental & Occupational Health Sciences and the programs in Health Management and Informatics, Food Systems, Nutrition, and Health, and Public Health-Global Health also select outstanding undergraduate students. Outstanding students excel in scholarship and have demonstrated a commitment to the field of public health. Other characteristics include creativity, intellectual curiosity, dedicated work ethic, exemplary research capabilities and the ability to be a team player.

OUTSTANDING TEACHING ASSISTANT AWARD

This award honors a teaching assistant who excels in facilitating student learning, demonstrates excellent teaching abilities, and provides important administrative assistance. The recipient in this category is knowledgeable and enthusiastic about subject material and excels in classroom communication — offering individual assistance to students as needed.

Mohamed Albirair, Global Health

STUDENT COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The recipient of this Student Community Service Award shows dedication and commitment to community service and volunteerism by building bridges between the School and the community. While being actively involved in a community service activity, the student contributes to and learns from the communities and individuals they serve.

Alison Wiyeh, Epidemiology

GILBERT S. OMENN AWARD FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

These prestigious School-wide honors are awarded to one doctoral student and one master's student, each nominated by their departments. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by graduate students in the School of Public Health who excel in scholarship and have demonstrated a commitment to the field of public health.

This booklet is not an official graduation list. While every effort is made to ensure accuracy, printing deadlines may result in the omission of some names and the inadvertent inclusion of others who have not completed graduation requirements as intended. This printed booklet should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status.

The University's official registry for conferral degrees is the student's permanent record, maintained by the UW Office of Graduation and Academic Records.
